“The Enchantress”

100% French Creek Vineyard Chardonnay
Yakima Valley AVA

The 2020 Enchantress "Old Vine" Chardonnay hails from French Creek Vineyard in the Eastern portion of the Yakima Valley. It was fermented and aged on lees in primarily neutral French oak barrels. It has an alluring nose of fresh-cut Granny Smith apples, lemon curd, and white flowers. It is richly textured from the lees-stirring, yet maintains a bright acid profile that broadens and extends the finish. The palate is dominated by notes of apple and pear, exotic baking spices, and a fresh lick of wet stone. This beautiful old-vine Chardonnay should age beautifully for the next decade.

International Wine Report - 93 Points

Aged on the lees in predominantly aged French oak barrels, this interesting Chardonnay brings aromas of crushed lemongrass, ripe yellow apple, and cream front and center. The palate is much the same with the addition of honey-coated Bartlett pear and blanched slivered almonds. Beautiful acidity and a yummy, lengthy, and herbal finish complete the wine. One of the better Washington Chardonnays that I have tasted from 2020. Editors choice. 2022-2028
