'Sorceress'

Sleight of Hand Cellars Grenache

Columbia Valley

93

Displaying a neon medium ruby core with a lighter brick rim, the 2021 Sorceress is all Grenache from the Columbia Valley. More red-fruit driven on the nose with aromas of macerated strawberries, crushed cherries that move towards dusty road and cedary herbs. Tannins are a bit elevated but with the mouthwatering acidity, this should age well for another decade or more. Better in 2024.
