Wine Advocate - 96-98 Points

The barrel sample of 2021 The Funkadelic Syrah is fresh, clean and classically structured with aromas of cured meat and sausages that sway from the glass with elements of grilled plums, red and black spice and dusty florals. Medium to full-bodied, the wine continues to show a more mineral-driven palate with funky and meaty flavors. The Syrah gives way to notions of umami, iodine and baked earth on the long-lingering, ever-evolving finish. This impressive juice and is already showing fantastically. I look forward to resampling and closer to its release date! Bravo!
